DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 2, 4-10, 21, 22, 24-30, 41, 42, and 44-50 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 1 is the inclusion of the limitation of processing the time series data to generate a plurality of hypersurfaces; processing the hypersurfaces with a plurality of membership functions to identify a plurality of clusters and to classify the clusters into a plurality of cluster types; processing the clusters from one of the cluster types to construct the feature; and classifying the feature. It is this limitation that is in the claimed combination that has not been found, taught, or suggested in the prior art that makes these claims allowable.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 21 is the inclusion of the limitation of a processing system configured to process the time series data to generate a plurality of hypersurfaces, process the hypersurfaces with a plurality of membership functions to identify a plurality of clusters and to classify the clusters into a plurality of cluster types and process the clusters from one of the cluster types to construe the feature and classify the feature. It is this limitation that is in the claimed combination that has not been found, taught, or suggested in the prior art that makes these claims allowable.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 41 is the inclusion of the limitation of application software configured to direct a processing system to process the time series data to generate a plurality of hypersurfaces, process the hypersurfaces with a plurality of membership functions to identify a plurality of clusters and to classify the clusters into a plurality of cluster types, process the clusters from one of the cluster types to construct the feature and classify the feature. It is this limitation that is in the claimed combination that has not been found, taught, or suggested in the prior art that makes these claims allowable.
